

Workshop

RESEARCH PERFORMANCE AND SOCIAL IMPACT OF ITALIAN PUBLIC ACADEMIC HEALTH SCIENCE CENTERS

This workshop examines the relationship between research performance and healthcare outcomes in Italian public Academic Health Science Centres. The aim is to provide tools whether academic research drives healthcare quality, patient choice, and case-mix complexity using bibliometric and scientometric methods

June 10, 2025

Room D7 - Department of Economics and Statistics (DiSES)
Monte Sant'Angelo University Campus
Via Cinthia No. 21, 80126 - Naples

h. 10.00 – 16.00

PROGRAM

- | | |
|----------------------|--|
| 10.00 – 10.30 | Welcome Prof. Corrado Cuccurullo and Prof. Massimo Aria |
| 10.30 – 11.00 | Understanding the Dimensions of AHCs University of Campania Luigi Vanvitelli Unit |
| 11.00 – 13.00 | Bibliographic Databases for SLR: From Classic to AI-Powered Solutions Nicola De Bellis - University of Modena & Reggio Emilia |
| 14.00 – 15.00 | Assessing the Scientific, Social, and Industrial Impact of AHC Activities University of Naples Federico II Unit |
| 15.45 – 16.00 | Dissemination Strategies and Outreach Activities University of Campania Luigi Vanvitelli Unit |

Organized within the framework of the PRIN 2022 PNRR project

The value of scientific production for patient care in Academic Health Science Centres

Project Code: P2022RF38Y CUP: E53D23016650001